

LETTERS.

Penalty for breaking open private or public letters—1713, ch. 2, sec. 8, 9, p. 7; 1790, ch. 51, 263

LETTERS OF ATTORNEY.

Any person forging or counterfeiting letters of attorney, for the transfer of stock of the state, to be deemed guilty of felony—1834, ch. 279, sec. 2, 1181

In all cases where payments of money or other dealings are had to and with any person acting under a power of attorney or other agency, the same to be binding upon the representatives or other assignees, although the party giving such power may be dead, or may have assigned his interest—1836, ch. 270, sec. 1, 1244

Provided, that the person having such dealing, had no notice of the death of the party, or the fact of the assignment aforesaid—1836, ch. 270, sec. 1, 1244

See Conveyances—Release.

LEVY COURTS.*

Seven of the justices of the peace to be commissioned by the governor and council as justices of the levy court in each county, except Baltimore, wherein there are to be eleven, four in the city and seven in the county—1798, ch. 34, 367

The justices of the levy court to meet between the first of March and first of October, annually, at their court-houses, to adjust the ordinary expenses of their counties, an allowance for the poor, and for the public roads, and for the payment thereof, with a commission not exceeding six per cent. to impose an assessment or rate on all property within their counties, and appoint a person or persons to collect the same—1794, ch. 53, sec. 1, 306

Duty of the clerk as to keeping accounts of the assessment, and delivering copies to the collector, &c.—1794, ch. 53, sec. 2, 307

The collector to proceed to the collection, and render an account and make payment—1794, ch. 53, sec. 2, 307

Mode of recovery prescribed—1794, ch. 53, sec. 2, p. 307; 1797, ch. 43, 347

Proceedings against the collector on his failing to pay over the money collected for the poor—1794, ch. 53, sec. 3, 308

The levy courts may impose assessments, for repairs to the courthouses of their county not exceeding £100 per year, for repairs to their county prison not exceeding £150 per year, for repairing completely any bridge not exceeding £30 per year, for erecting any one new bridge not exceeding £100 per year—1794, ch. 53,
sec. 4, 309

Directions for building bridges where two or more counties are divided by water—1794, ch. 53, sec. 5, 6, 309

* See 'Local Law,' title, 'County Commissioners.'